Hello, I am a student at Buffalo State University. I would like to stress the importance of removing the current six ownership laws. These provisions restrict free enterprise and are antique by the standards of tech. If removed one could only hope anti-trust regulations providing a check and balance system. Thank you